

StrykerAV

The Future of Aviation Safety is in good hands with the introduction of contemporary aviation reporting, investigation and analysis capability, this will enhance the wildlife operations team ability to learn and understand the patterns of wildlife relating to aviation Safety.

1. Features:

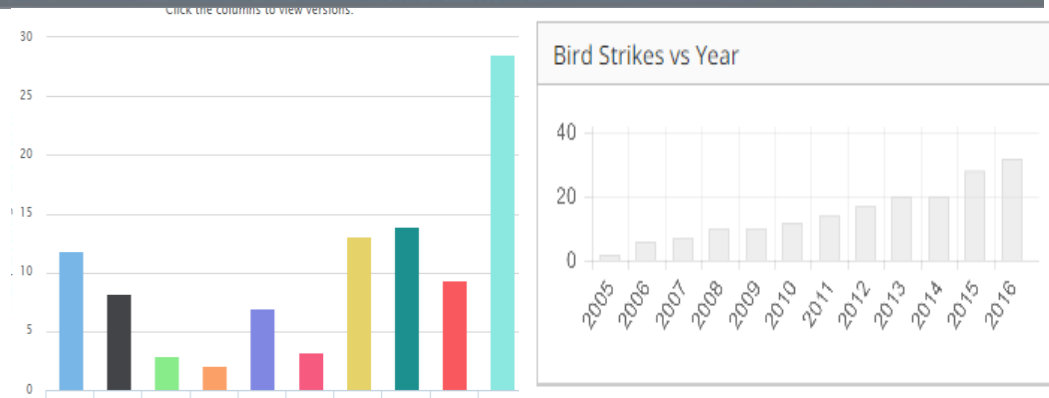

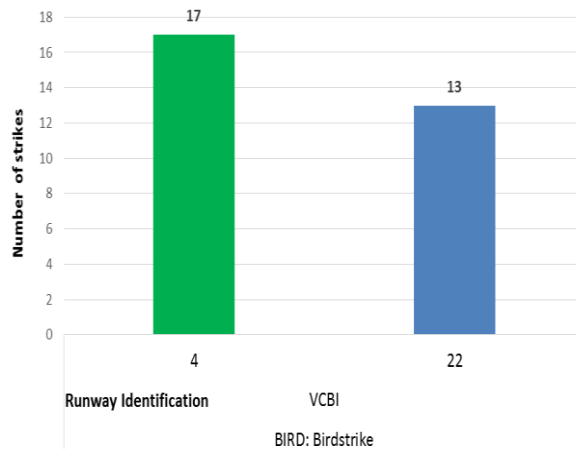

Introducing StrykerAV to Implement your Hazard Management Plans. Minimise Bird strikes by Modifying your environment, Habitat and Understand Bird Patterns.

StrykerAV, your vital data tool, for the best use of multiple deterrent methods and wildlife management.

Strike out Bird Strikes with StrykerAV Bash Management software.

StrykerAV enables intelligent reporting of Wildlife Activity within an Airfield In addition to reporting and generating

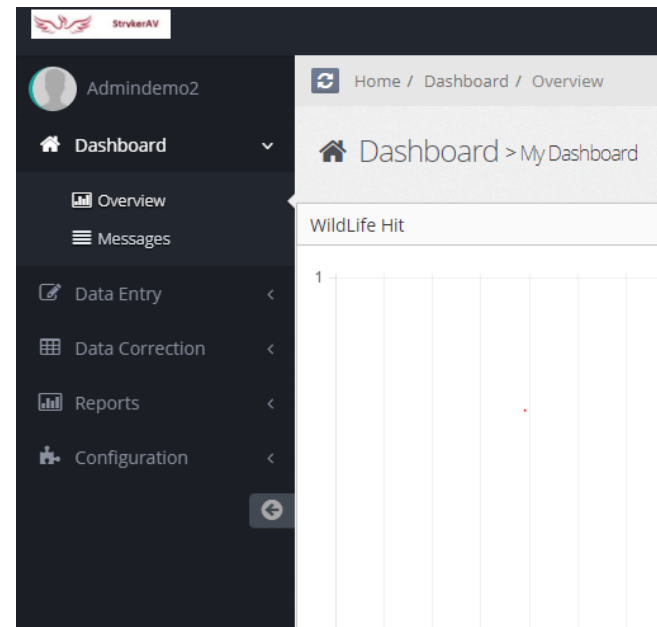

- Bird Strike Reports as per ICAO requirement to Regulators
- Bird Activity Reports to understand Wildlife Activity within the Airfield

Screenshots:

Dashboard Functionality Allows user to get a visible overview of wildlife patterns

Messages Functionality Allows users to leave communication between each other.

The Wildlife Hit and Wildlife Activity opens forms for users to report on Strikes and Activity within Airfield

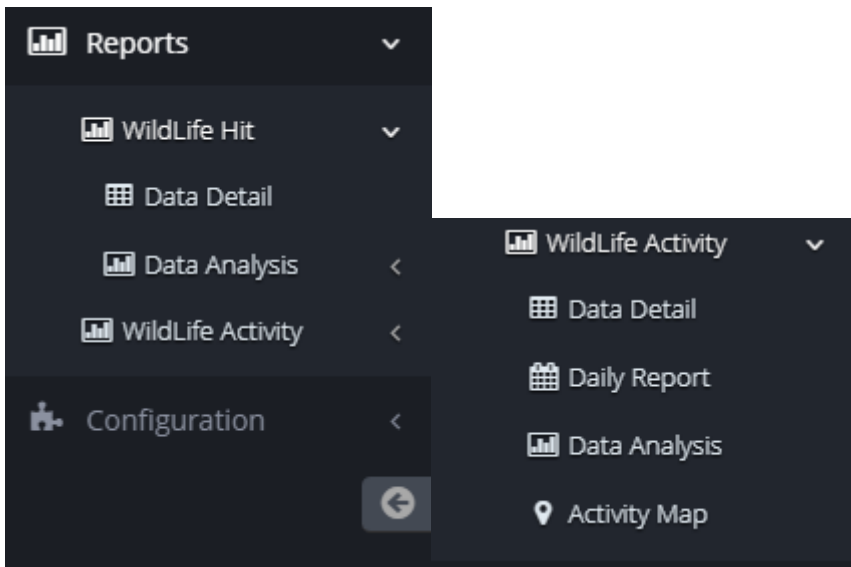

Reports:

Wide variety of Reports are available and can be customized as per Airfield's requirement.

Wildlife Activity Mapping on Zones of Airfields – Visual and Operational Reporting

These reports can be interfaced with any Corporate Reporting systems within an organisation

- Multi-functional web based database system
- Designed specifically to meet ICAO's Wildlife inspection reporting requirements of Airports
- A powerful tool to help improve wildlife data recording and reporting
- Can be customized as required by Airports.